MESSAGE

I extend my heartiest congratulations to the South Asian Outlook, North America's first e-monthly, on entering 15th year of regular publication on July 2014. I understand that in the past 14 years, the South Asian Outlook has been serving the readership of all age groups and all those who are interested in the rich cultural heritage of South Asia, its diversity, complexity and vitality.

I take this opportunity to wish them all success in their noble efforts to promote understanding, friendship and goodwill among South Asian community in Canada.

(Akhilesh Mishra)
Consul General
