On behalf of the Constituents of Don Valley East, I am honoured to extend my heartfelt greetings and congratulations to the editorial board of South Asian Outlook as you enter your 15th year of publication!

Community based multicultural media sources breathe life into the shared Canadian ideal of a diverse, pluralistic society.

Since 2001, your publication has served as an integral community based forum - highlighting the rich social and cultural heritage of South Asian Canadians and the achievements members of the community continue to make.

As you embark on your 15th year, I wish you every continued success and sincerely thank you for the immense contribution you have made to the vitality of our community!

Sincerely,
